

Hello Community Partner/Neighbor/Friend,

Brooks DeBartolo Collegiate High School will be hosting their annual Spring Event and Silent Auction on Saturday, April 13, 2019. Proceeds raised at this event will help us improve the school's instructional tools/resources, technology, student assistance programs, and help us provide needed equipment for classrooms, athletics, and fine/performing arts. While our school has balanced its budget based on state dollars, to sustain and grow the school's success requires the help of our community partners, neighbors, and our students, faculty and staff, parents, and families.
